Eight Rounds of Balloting and Eight More Fizzles at Frankfort.

THE CRISIS NOW NEAR AT HAND

Special to The Public Ledger.

FRANKFORT, March 30th.

There was today a practical repetition of the routine of the past week—"the Senate of Kentucky" waiting into the House and engaging in the to-and-fro effort to elect a United States Senator at a daily expense of $1,000 to the taxpayers of Kentucky, and with no more idea of attending to their duties than a lot of schoolboys.

The rollcall showed several "pairs," with a total present of 134, it requiring 63 to elect.

For the first time since the monkeying began the Hunter forces were able to force more than one ballot, and today there were eight rounds fought, without any apparent advantage to Hunter, however.

The result of the first three ballots was—

Hunter.....	50
Blackburn.....	48
Davis.....	13
Boyle.....	7
Stone.....	1

A fourth ballot was taken, with but one change, John Johns, Gold Democrat, voted for Henry L. Martin. He had on the first three ballots voted for Davis.

On the fifth ballot Johns changed his vote back to Davis. There was no other change.

The sixth ballot resulted the same as the fifth.

The seventh ballot gave Hunter 58, Blackburn 41, Boyle 7, Davis 18, Stone 1, total 100; necessary to a choice, 61.

The two lost to Hunter were on temporary pairs.

The eighth ballot gave Hunter 59, Blackburn 49, Davis 18, Boyle 7, Stone 1. And the Assembly adjourned till tomorrow noon.

WHAT IT MEANS.

The City Will Be Apparently Benefited by the Bank Tax Decision.

About $4,000 a year will be the amount paid into the City Treasury on the present capital stock of the local Banks if the recent decision of the Court of Appeals stands.

And if it be decided to go back to the beginning of the litigation between the various cities and towns against the Banks, and collect "back taxes" for four years, the aggregate sum will exceed $30,000, for the reason that several of the city Banks have within a year or two considerably reduced their capital stock.

In the long run, however, it may be doubted if the decision will inure to the benefit of the community, for in addition to the fact that the Banks may still further reduce their capital stock in order to lessen taxation, they will undoubtedly recoup by increasing their rates of discount and charging for the collection of foreign checks and for many other services that are now rendered gratuitously.

But it is not yet certain that these things will come to pass, as the whole matter will probably be carried to the Supreme Court of the United States.

Y. M. C. A. MATTERS.

What the Local Association is Doing For the City's Young Men.

The score last night stood—

BLUES..... 53

REDS..... 58

On Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock an illustrated chemical talk was given to the boys, the theme being "Good and Bad Compulsions."

The Juniors are working hard to bring in new members. Thus far the "Reds" have brought in none, while the "Blues" have three to their credit. Hurrah for the "Blues!"

Louisville will have a $150,000 Y. M. C. A. Building in the near future. If the people of Maysville will rally to the support of the "Blues" our beloved city will see such a monument within its limits in the near future.

The "Blues" are sweeping up the rear of the procession with an earnestness that really makes Captain Cox and his army shudder. The good-natured Captain actually pales at the sight of a "Blue" veteran; and well he might, for in that emblem he sees nothing but grim defeat staring at him from every side of the warrior.

Never was there as much interest manifested in a campaign as that one being waged by the "Blues." They have such staying qualities that even the "Reds" can't help admiring their nerve. Keep it up, boys, and the night of the banquet will find Captain Knackley and his army with their tribals under the first mahogany.

Confidence has been restored—at least, the enemy, our friends, the "Reds," got a genuine hustle on themselves yesterday and the day before. They are painfully aware, all the same, that the "Blues" are after them with a torrid stick, and that ere the fight is finished Cox's Army will have to admit that Captain Knackley's Army is the finest that ever traveled the pike.

On April 1st the Indiana State Prison at Jeffersonville will become a State Reformatory for younger criminals. This great house of reform has cost the taxpayers of the Hoosier State millions of dollars, not saying a thing about what it cost to populate it. Supporting the above amount of money has been expended in Young Men's Christian Association Buildings, how different the state of morality and how less the cost to the state? The taxpayers of Maysville and Mason county could make no better investment than a building to prevent crime—A. Y. M. C. A. Building. The "Blues" represent this grand institution.

There are now 26 boys who are enjoying the privileges of the Y. M. C. A. two afternoons each week, and none connected with this good Association appreciate the advantages more than do these Junior members. Last Saturday evening about seventy of the parents and friends of the Juniors gathered at the gymnasium to witness an exhibition of the dumb-bell drill and other class exercises, and although the boys have been drilling but a few weeks, they gave a most creditable exhibition, including, besides the dumb-bell drill, work on German horse, traveling rings, jumping, trill rings and basketball games.

"Kentucky Wonder" Beans for planting, cheap—George H. Helser, 117 West Second street.

What use is there in eating when food does you no good—in fact when it does you more harm than good? For such is the case if it is not digested.

If you have a longing for food there is no use of forcing it down, for it will not be digested. You must restore the digestive organs to their natural strength and cause the food to be digested, when an appetite will come, and with it a wish for food.

The great, hearty feeling will give place to vigor and energy; then you will put flesh on your bones and become strong. The Shaker Digestive Cordial as made by the Mount Lebanon Shakers contains food already digested and is a digester of foods as well. Its action is prompt and its effects permanent.

Doctors prescribe Lanolin, because it has all the virtues of Castor Oil and is palatable.

More Talk

About Time.

Some people are peculiar in the matter of buying a Watch. A silver Watch is good enough for one man so long as it keeps good time. Another one wants something a little more showy—a gold one,—but it, too, must keep good time. Some want a high-priced Watch, others a cheaper one, but after all everybody wants a correct timepiece. We selected our stock with time in view, and can sell you a high, low or medium-priced Watch—and any of them will keep time—the essential point.

We repair Watches so that we can guarantee them to keep time. Charges low.

TAKEN FROM THE VAULT.

Mound of Earth Now Covers the Coffin of James D. Porter.

When visitors to Louisville enter Cave Hill Cemetery, says The Courier Journal, generally the first place they desire to visit is the vault in which the remains of James D. Porter, "the Kentucky knight," rested for almost forty years. Arriving at the iron entrance, they peer into the darkness of the vault until the huge outlines of the sarcophagus in which the coffin laid could be discerned.

Not only visitors to the city, but many who reside here and have been in the Cemetery time and again, invariably visit the line of vaults, sunk into the hillside just beyond the lake and stopping at the last one remark on the wondrous height of the Kentuckian who stood seven feet eight inches in his stocking feet. He was known all over the country and his name was perpetuated outside of his native place by a conspicuous mention in Charles Dickens's "American Notes."

Porter died in 1850 and his family had the remains placed in the vault in Cave Hill Cemetery, where they remained until about a week ago. A close inspection showed the arch and walls of the apartment to be in an unsafe condition and it was torn down. The coffin was then placed on the ground near the site of the old vault and was covered with a neat mound of earth, only the headstone bearing name and date of death being left exposed to view.

WE'RE FOR AMERICA! AMERICANS!

The situation at Frankfort is disgraceful; still THE LEXER has no kick coming.

The Hon. DED POLLITT, one of the Representatives from Lewis county, has been true to his party.

It must be confessed that there isn't much field for a party newspaper when the "rank and file" know more than the Editor.

The resolution over the Republican boilers at Frankfort reminds one of the effort to drown a duck by pouring water on its back.

DEATH WATCH MURRAY states that JACKSON and WALLING took the dual preparations for their hanging to be a bluff to secure from them a confession. The people of Mason county could stand a "bluff" of that sort just now.

Our friends the enemy are justly entitled to say all the mean things they may about the situation at Frankfort. For more than a week past 67 bull-headed men have been attempting to overthrow the sovereign will of a self-sacrificing patriots.

The present session of the Legislature will stand adjourned under the Governor's call May 21st; but it can adjourn sooner by agreement of both Houses. However, there's not much danger of that, for the good reason that $5 a day is a softer snap than the average member can find at home.

EDITOR W. C. DEMING of The Warren Tribune, one of the brightest Republican papers in Ohio, is announced as a candidate for Representative from Trumbull county. Mr. DEMING is a son of Judge O. S. DEMING of Mt. Oliver, and it will be highly gratifying to his Kentucky friends to see him honored by his Ohio constituency. The writer has known him for many years, and has never known a worthier young man.

The American ship, built in American shipyards, from American materials, employing American shipwrights, and then manned by American seamen, carrying the flag and the products of the United States to the uttermost ends of the earth, proclaiming the greatness and the glory of this Nation, is no less an American product, or an American manufacture, and therefore no less entitled to full protection in competition with foreign ships, conveying our products to those countries, than are other American products, on the land, which are subject to foreign competition.

The Washington newspapers are commending President McKinley's course in asking the withdrawal of the police cordon which surrounded the White House day and night during the Cleveland Administration. "The police force of this city," says The Washington Star, an independent paper, "was seriously detrimed by the large number of men drawn away from it for use at the White House during its occupancy by President CLEVELAND." And it adds: "Mr. McKinley's revocation of the order will be with excellent grace and will be highly appreciated by the people."

NOVEMBER 6th, 1896, was a sad day for the trusts. They flourished like a green bay tree during the Democratic Administration, but the election of a Republican President and Congress instantly depressed them, and the inauguration of President McKinley, followed by the meeting of a Republican Congress and the announcement of the Tariff Bill, shows that their day of control has passed. When the paragraph of President McKinley's inaugural address in which he promised the enforcement of the anti-trust laws reached Wall street, there was an instant tumbling in all the trust stocks. The Tobacco Trust lost more than one per cent; Consolidated Gas, one and a fourth; Chicago Gas, one and three-eighths; Leather, two; and Sugar Trust, two and a half.

The quarrel in the Democratic ranks at Washington goes beautifully on. The difficulty which the would-be leaders on the Democratic side of the House had in "getting together" on the Tariff question is illustrated by the fact that on the opening day of the session both McMILLIN and BAILEY, the Democratic high chiefs, sat silent in their seats, and allowed such mediocre "statesmen" as General WHEELER of Alabama and Populist BELL of Colorado to occupy the time in opposition to the Tariff Bill. Mr. BAILEY does not intend that WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN and his admirers shall run the Democratic party, nor does he think it proper that he should assume that the Chicago Convention of 1896 made nominations for the campaign of the year 1900. And it is quite apparent that a large majority of the Democrats in Congress agree with him on this subject by the fact that by an overwhelming vote they chose him as their leader in the organization of the Democratic side of the House.

IT IS USELESS
To Prolong a Hopeless War,
Says Minister DeLome.

Spain Ready to Compromise Upon Almost Any Terms.

MAJ. P. LLOYD wants to be Minister to Belgium—Frank Palmer, of Illinois, Nominated for Public Printer—The Cabinet Meeting—Foraker's Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Within the past few days Minister Dupuy De Lome has said in private conversation to more than one person that the cause of Spain in Cuba was lost forever. He has intimated that the official administration of the island was honey-combed with either dishonesty or ineptitude, and that in view of this fact it was idle for Spain to be sending soldiers to the island, for no matter how brave privateers might be, the officers were looking for private gain or public honor, and sacrificed their troops for personal considerations. From the conversations of the Spanish minister, who has usually been so guarded, it is taken for granted in the diplomatic corps that Spain is getting ready to drop Cuba as a station fully as may be. The monarchy will ostensibly fight to the end, but it is almost ready for surrender, provided something can be done to water to Castilian pride. The Spanish minister has seen Secretary Sherman very often of late, and while no open negotiations have been carried on, he has intimated that if they, the insurgents, would accept anything at all short of independence, Spain would be ready to meet them half way.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—MAJ. P. LLOYD, of Cincinnati, has been since Saturday pushing his application for minister to Belgium. He has numerous endorsements and a recommendation signed by business and professional men of Cincinnati and elsewhere.

Senator Foraker Tuesday morning introduced in the senate a modified form of the Patterson pooling bill, which permits its friends under certain restrictions to pool in the matter of transportation of freights.

The president Tuesday sent to the senate the following appointments: Frank W. Palmer, of Illinois, to be public printer.
Alexander M. Thacker, of Pennsylvania, to be consul of the United States at Havre, France.
Assistant Surgeon James Oakley, of Illinois, to be a passed assistant surgeon in the marine hospital service.

Neither the Cuban question nor any other matter of moment was considered at Tuesday's meeting of the cabinet. In fact the session was without public interest and without any general interest. The president and his advisers in chatting over some minor things. Very few people called at the white house Tuesday morning prior to the cabinet meeting. It was the easiest business day the president has had since his inauguration.

Gen. Draper, of Massachusetts, who is said to be slated for the Italian mission, was the only visitor of prominence.

The Arbitration Treaty.
WASHINGTON, March 31.—The last day of the debate on the amendments that have been made to the general treaty of arbitration concluded with the discussion of Tuesday afternoon. Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock the vote will be taken on the amendments that are pending up to that time, and the next morning the amended copy of the treaty, if it shall have been amended shall be laid before the senate. The discussion of these amendments will proceed until Thursday at 4 o'clock, when the final vote on the amendments then pending will be taken, and after that no further amendments will be permitted. When the final vote will be taken is a matter that can not now be determined. Mr. Davis has pressed for an agreement, but up to this time has been unable to secure one.

Los Retros April 13.
WASHINGTON March 31.—It is reported that Gen. General Lee will leave Cuba April 15, and that Judge Day, of Canton, O., will succeed him.

THE TURKS
Attacked by a Strong Force of Insurgents at Spinalonga and Compelled to Retreat.
LONDON, March 31.—A dispatch to the Central News from Athens states that a strong force of insurgents Tuesday attacked the Turkish troops at Spinalonga, Crete. The troops made a desperate defense of their positions, but could not withstand the determined onslaught of the Christians and were finally compelled to retreat. There was heavy fighting throughout the engagement. The dispatch adds that a vessel lying in the harbor of Spinalonga laden with ammunition and other stores was captured by the insurgents, who removed the captured supplies out of reach of the Turks.

Informal Dinner to the Cleverlands.
PRINCETON, N. J., March 31.—An informal dinner was given Tuesday evening to ex-President and Mrs. Cleveland at President Patton's cottage. A number of invited guests from New York, Philadelphia and Trenton were present to meet the ex-president and his wife, besides several of the university faculty.

Crawled Under a Train.
AKRON, O., March 31.—Nicholas Brower, a blacksmith, attempted to crawl under a freight train on a switch Tuesday morning, and had both legs cut off. Death followed. Brakeman John Hendon broke his leg trying to save him.

Torpedo Boat No. 7 Sunk.
BOSTON, N. J., March 31.—Torpedo boat No. 7 was launched at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening at the Herreshoff works in the presence of a number of naval officers, invited guests and about 300 workpeople.
